

The press is not an arm of the government, it has no business being for one or another, if this is allowed to continue we will become either a Hitler Germany or the former Soviet Union which has finally freed itself from these practices. Stop this now and think is this election that corrupt that we will become something that is horrible and dispised by its people and the world Dan Kettering 1888 Connect rd. Norton Ohio